Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is deemed to be objectionable because it tends to promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It is a highly sexualised image of a naked young girl. The image is clearly intended to titillate or arouse those with a sexual interest in children. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest by presenting children as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. The objectionable classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention to limit the availability of publications that tend to promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and also reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from such exploitation.
